INCOME AND NET WORTH LIMITATIONS

If eligible, your pension benefit is the difference between your “countable” income and the annual pension limit set by Congress. VA generally pays this difference in 12 equal monthly payments.

Countable income. Includes income from most sources as well as from any eligible dependents. It generally includes earnings, disability and retirement payments, interest and dividend payments from annuities, and net income from farming or a business. Some expenses, such as unreimbursed medical expenses, may reduce your countable income.

Net worth. Includes assets such as bank accounts, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, annuities, and any property other than your residence and a reasonable lot area. You should report all of your net worth. VA will determine whether your assets are of a sufficiently large amount that you could live off of them for a reasonable period of time.

Yearly Income. Your yearly family income must be less than the amount set by Congress to qualify for the Veterans or Survivors’ Pension benefit.

Entitlement to a VA Pension or VA Pension with Aid & Attendance is determined by financial need based on combined income and assets which for 2022 may not exceed $138,489 after deducting qualifying, non-reimbursed medical expenses such as health care premiums and the cost of nursing home care, qualified senior living/personal care, or in-home care services.

After deducting qualifying unreimbursed medical expenses, Countable Income cannot exceed...
	Pension Only	With Aid &amp; Attendance
Veteran Only	$14,753	$24,610
Un-Remarried Surviving Spouse	$9,896	$15,816
Veteran &amp; Spouse	$19,320	$29,175

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

What qualifies as a wartime period?

Under current law, VA recognizes the following war periods:

- World War I (April 6, 1917—November 11, 1918)
- World War II (December 7, 1941—December 31, 1946)
- Korean conflict (June 27, 1950—January 31, 1955)
- Vietnam era (November 1, 1955—May 7, 1975 for Veterans who served in the Republic of Vietnam during that period; otherwise August 5, 1964—May 7, 1975)

- Gulf War (August 2, 1990—through a future date to be set by law or Presidential Proclamation)

If I am already receiving monthly payments for a service-connected disability, can I also receive a VA pension?

You cannot receive a VA non-service-connected pension and service-connected disability compensation at the same time. However, if you apply for a pension benefit and are awarded payments, VA will pay you whichever benefit is greater.

Can I reapply for pension benefits if I do not initially qualify?

Yes, you may reapply at any time if your countable income is below the yearly limit (which may occur after deducting unreimbursed medical expenses from the 12 month period after VA received your claim), or if you were denied because you were not rated as permanently and totally disabled but your disabilities have become worse.

I believe that I'm eligible for the VA Pension program. What's my next step?

Contact us (or your county's VA office) at 610-782-3295 to discuss details. During that phone call, we will review the requirements with you and also discuss other details of the program. If it appears that you qualify, we will provide you with a checklist of items needed to apply such as proof of military service, financial information, etc. and also several forms which need to be completed prior to scheduling an in-person meeting to complete the application process.

Is there any cost to me or my family for assistance in applying for VA benefits?

There is never a charge for this service or any other service provided by your county veterans affairs office. As a matter of fact, in almost all cases, it is illegal to charge a fee to assist someone to apply for veteran's benefits. Every county veterans office is staffed with VA-accredited Veteran Service Officers (VSOs) who are trained and experienced to provide assistance.

☐ Special Monthly Compensation (SMC) - Veterans and surviving spouses or parents who are eligible to receive VA compensation due to a service-related disability or death and require aid and attendance of another person to perform personal functions required in everyday living such as bathing, feeding, dressing, attending to the wants of nature, adjusting prosthetic devices, or protecting oneself from the hazards of the daily environment may be eligible for Special Monthly Compensation. A Veteran or a deceased Veteran's surviving spouse may also be eligible for Special Monthly Compensation based on being housebound (substantially confined to the immediate premises because of permanent disability). For a Veteran, the disability causing the need for aid and attendance or housebound status must be related to service. These benefits are paid in addition to monthly compensation. They are not paid without eligibility to compensation.

☐ Special Monthly Pension (SMP) - Veterans and survivors who are eligible for Veteran's Pension and/or Survivors benefits and require the aid and attendance of another person in order to perform personal functions required in everyday living, such as bathing, feeding, dressing, attending to the wants of nature, adjusting prosthetic devices, or protecting him/her from the hazards of his/her daily environment, or are housebound (substantially confined to his/her immediate premises because of permanent disability), may be eligible for Special Monthly Pension (SMP). This benefit is an increased monthly amount paid to a Veteran or survivor who is eligible for Veterans Pension or Survivors benefits.

NOTE: EXAMINER PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

The purpose of this examination is to record manifestations and findings pertinent to the question of whether the claimant is housebound (confined to the home or immediate premises) or in need of the regular aid and attendance of another person. The report should be in sufficient detail for the VA decision makers to determine the extent that disease or injury produces physical or mental impairment, that loss of coordination or enfeeblement affects the ability: to dress and undress; to feed him/herself; to attend to the wants of nature; or keep him/herself ordinarily clean and presentable. Findings should be recorded to show whether the claimant is blind or bedridden. Whether the claimant seeks housebound or aid and attendance benefits, the report should reflect how well he/she ambulates, where he/she goes, and what he/she is able to do during a typical day.

WORKSHEET FOR AN ASSISTED LIVING, ADULT DAY CARE, OR A SIMILAR FACILITY

NOTE: Only complete this worksheet if you are claiming expenses for an assisted living facility, adult day care or similar facility.

IMPORTANT: VA recognizes the following five activities as Activities of Daily Living (ADLs) for medical expense purposes:

STEP 5. If you answered "YES" in Step 2, you stated that the facility provides you with health care and/or custodial care. Is this the primary reason you live in the facility (or attend day care in the facility)?

Please report the amount you pay the facility for lodging and meals separate from the amount you pay the facility for health care services or assistance with ADLs provided by a health care provider as medical expenses in Items 45A thru 45F. Skip to Step 8)
(If "NO," payments to this facility for meals and lodging do not qualify as medical expenses.
