Creating Forms and Reports with Access

This session will address how to create single-table forms in which you can view and edit data. You will learn how to design forms from scratch and how to customize them. In addition, you will learn how reports work and how to create a report with and without the Wizard. We will discuss sub-forms and multi-user considerations in designing forms and reports.