

ADDITIONAL SOURCES OF INFORMATION FOR VICTIMS

More information for victims is available at www.pccd.state.pa.us, the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency Website. Information on victims' compensation for victims of personal injury crimes is available.

The Pennsylvania Office of the Victim Advocate (OVA) can register crime victims in cases where judges have ordered jurisdiction of offenders to the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections and/or the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole. Visit www.ova.state.pa.us or call 1-800-322-4472 for more information. Registration is necessary to get notification of your right in Pennsylvania to provide input about any pre-release and parole review of an offender.

Visit www.cvclv.org, the Website for the Crime Victims Council of the Lehigh Valley, to learn more about its services.

Services to domestic violence victims are available from Turning Point of Lehigh Valley. Visit www.turningpointlv.org or call 610-439-3369.