LEHIGH COUNTY BUREAU OF ELECTIONS NOTIFIES RESIDENTS OF UNAFFILIATED MAILER

Lehigh County, PA- It has come to the attention of the Lehigh County Bureau of Elections that a private non-profit organization called the Voter Participation Center is currently mailing notices to citizens in all 67 counties in the Commonwealth. These notices reference accuracy of their voter registration records. A valid Pennsylvania Voter Registration Application is attached to each letter. It is believed similar notices will also be sent in September.

Please be advised that the Lehigh County Elections and Voter Registration Office is NOT affiliated with the Voter Participation Center or its mailings, and did not provide any information to that organization. The Lehigh County Bureau of Elections is the county office for the best and most accurate voter registration information. Any resident who has questions about how to register to vote or to change any of their current voter registration information should contact the Lehigh County Bureau of Elections, located at 17 South 7th Street, Allentown, by calling (610) 782-3194, or by email at timothybenyo@lehighcounty.com Electronic Voter Registration Applications may be found on www.votespa.com

Any information received from the Voter Participation Project may be discarded, as it will not affect current registration information. Please address any concerns about this to the Lehigh County Bureau of Elections at (610) 782-3194.
