

Describe the project or program. Include operational costs for which funds are being requested

Services to be provided to our clients are what makes this program unique:

Clothing (donated by the community $0 operational cost) - in addition to everyday clothing, our clothing closet can also provide proper attire for interviews, work or religious purposes

Education/GED Prep (volunteer $0 operational cost) - Provide GED prep test and based on results determine level of continued to support before referral to /class or test completion

2nd Chance Apprenticeship (community business but placed by case worker - $45K salary) in trades (CDL, Plumbing, Electrician, Construction) - Partnership w/local companies that will hire, train and certify in certain skill areas

2nd Chance Employment Resources (community business but placed by case worker - $45K salary) - referred to employment who offer 2nd chance employment

Job Readiness (volunteer) - Interview prep; proper attire; mock interviews w/evaluation process

Business Education ($200 per class) - motivate and prep to become business owners, crash courses in procedural steps, licensing requirements, business proposals etc.

Life Skills ($100 per class) - offered workshops on budgeting, planning, goal setting etc.

Coping Skills/Life Coaching (Life Coach $60k Salary - 6 mentor - volunteers $0 operational cost) - assigned cert life coach

Anger Management (community business but placed by case worker - $45K salary) - understand anger, triggers and learning coping mechanisms

Community Service/Engagement $0 operational cost - hours offered through community partnerships which may go towards sentence (community service hours req) or just to help create investment or sense of ownership within the community

Support Meetings (group setting) (community business but placed by case worker - $45K salary) - Group sessions to assist with life struggles and ordeals, designed to keep motivation high and pivotal in avoiding reentry.

Resource Info $0 operational cost - Food, furniture, Mental health, Drug & Alcohol rehab and much more